

The Reasons Why Bundling Business Phone and Internet are Smart for Business

Increased Productivity

Streamline all network and calling operations without the hassle of multiple installations. Conveniently and with peace of mind manage your service from one account.

Money and Time Savings

Cable ONE Business lets you choose your desired speed and features, which means only paying for what you need. And if you're switching from your previous internet provider, you may be eligible to receive a credit. With Cable ONE Business, you can save even more if you choose a one-, two- or three-year agreement.

Savings and Reliability

Get all the phone and high-speed internet features you need without drawbacks. From long distance calling to video conferencing to uploading and downloading files, your operations will all be covered.

Flexible Packages

Every business has different communications needs. As your business evolves, you want the flexibility to modify your service with customizable phone and internet packages that offer varying speeds and features.

24/7 Support

The best business internet and phone plans are backed by support you can trust. From issues with business internet phones to problems with network connectivity, Cable One technical support staff are trained to diagnose and resolve most issues and are ready to assist you 24/7.
